Camela Dingle

"I'M PROUD OF YOU, CAMELA"

It is impossible for everyone to win or place, but the poise and confidence you gain is even greater. Teachers provide the training, parents add their love, and you spend many hours of practice and sacrifice, which all add to a tremendous experience to guide you in the future. Congratulations Camela and may God bless you.

Love,
Granny

"CONGRATULATIONS CAMELA"

Since you were born, you have brought sunshine to our lives. There are so many things that have made us proud of you, that we don't know where to start. It has been joyful to sit back and watch you grow into a beautiful lady. Ever since the first day I saw you, I could tell that you would have many things going for you. We wish you the best of luck now and in your future. Stay sweet and may God bless you.

Love always and forever,
Dad, Mom, and Brother

James William Edmonds Jr.

Congratulations! Your determination and goals to be successful is what makes you so very special.

Love,
Mother Dear/Vivian C. Edmonds

James H. Ellis

"Go James - onward - upward - sharing a peace of mind with humanity. God keep you. We love you."

Your Loved Ones

Ann F. Fleming

To our dearest Ann: We are very proud of you. Always acknowledge the Lord and he will direct all of your endeavors.

Much Love,
Mom and Dad

Christa L. Flood

CONGRATULATIONS! Hold on to your dreams, We knew you could do it. May God bless you!

Love

History of the Class of 1996 Winston-Salem State University

Class of 1996

Our matriculation through Winston-Salem State University has been an unforgettable experience. Very similar to the human development of people: we started out as infants and evolved into critical thinking adults.

As freshmen in 1992, we started out as infants. We had to familiarize ourselves with our environment. Initially, we were challenged with the task of making a difference. We had to let it be known that we were here to meet the challenge.

We found our advisor to be Becky Caldwell and we decided on purple and black for our class colors. Our officers included Christa Flood-President, Charlene Pretty-Vice-President, Frankie Fuller-Parliamentarian, Towanda Macon-Treasurer, Sherise Allen-Chaplain, Mauricia Harrington-Corresponding Secretary, Michele Pugh-Recording Secretary, Keya Hairston-Assistant Recording Secretary, Jennifer Martin-Executive Assistant, Chris McDougal-Sergeant-At-Arms, Danyelle Sanders-Special Assistant, Stevette Barnette-Miss Freshman, and Antonio Fulton, Victor Jackson, Kevin McCullough, Neshia Morgan, and Calsine Pitt-Class Representatives.

The year's festivities were sparked by a Fashion/Talent Show which eventually became a traditional Homecoming event for our class. The Homecoming show featured the stepshow, Rare Essence, Leaders of the New School, and Teddy Carpenter. Fundraisers ranged from hotdog sales to holiday candy grams. We sponsored a rap session and were involved with SGA in a Black History Program. Our Freshman year ended with much growth, reflection, and goals for the upcoming year.

Our Sophomore year was one which would also bring fond memories. Our officers were Charlene Pretty-President, Jonise Jones-Vice-President, Tawana Spencer-Treasurer, Leslie Cofield-Recording Secretary, Eva McLean-Corresponding Secretary, Tameka McCain-Chaplain, Angela Whitehurst-Miss Sophomore, and Leah Ramseur, Danyelle Sanders, Mathias Sampson, Nikita Williams-Class Representatives. The Homecoming show consisted of the stepshow, Lords of the Underground, Intro, and Adele Givens. On Sophomore Day during Homecoming week, we featured our class through a number of ways in the Variety/Fashion Show.

Our fundraisers included those of hotdog sales, candy grams and doughnut sales. Community involvement is a factor that is most important in meeting the challenge to make a difference. Community involvement included everything from collecting canned goods for the homeless to Christmas caroling for the elderly. The Sophomore Class was also well represented at the annual Black College Day. Sophomore year was brought to a close with a desire and effort to do bigger and better things and to continue bonding as a class.

Junior year started with an energetic start and the officers were Leah Ramseur-President, Natasha Fetterson-Vice-President, Leslie Cofield-Recording Secretary, Eva McLean-Corresponding Secretary, Kenya Mitchell-Treasurer, Amy Houston-Historian, Yolanda Jones-Chaplain, Chris McDougal-Parliamentarian, Roxanne Horton-Miss Junior, and Shanta Yelverton, Celestine Boney, Towanda Macon-Class Representatives. Homecoming was an exciting event in which we kept tradition and had a Fashion/Talent Extravaganza. The Homecoming show featured Black Street, Craig Mac, D.L. Hughley.

The activities, community involvement, and fundraisers were numerous. We sold blowpops, pom-poms and snack packs. We sponsored a Dating Game and an "end of semester jam" which were both very successful. We shared the Christmas spirit by singing Christmas carols at a rest home and teaming with SGA for Toys for Tots. As a growing custom, our class was well represented at Black College Day. Junior year was comparable to that of an adolescent. Because of the prior years, we had established a strong sense of identity and were becoming more and more responsible as a class.

Senior year is here and is rapidly approaching closure. The officers include Joseph Briscoe-President, Shanta Yelverton-Vice-President, Yolanda Sawyer-Recording Secretary, Lovie Debnam-Corresponding Secretary, Steven Thompson-Treasurer, Benita Watkins-Historian, Victor Jackson and Nita Smiley-Parliamentarians, Rick Jones-Chaplain, Tyyawdi Baker-Miss Senior, Mia Peterson-Administrative Assistant, and Keith Penn, Monty Hickman, Lauren Bradley, Corine Warren, Demont Cox-Class Representatives.

During our years at WSSU, we have witnessed a number of unforgettable events that will definitely be marked in history. A few of these unforgettable events are the inauguration of President Mandela and the suffrage of all South Africans, the O.J. Simpson trial, the Million Man March, Black Studies as a requirement, Richard Huntley's accomplishments in football, the search for a new chancellor and renovations on campus.

Just like human development begins with infancy and marches steadily to adulthood, the Class of 1996 has matured likewise. We have now met the challenge of making a difference in our class, university and community. We will continue meeting the challenge as we leave this prestigious university. We rise to the motto of our founding fathers-- "Enter to Learn & Depart to Serve." We encourage all students to take pride in themselves, their class, and especially Winston-Salem State University. Our university is experiencing many changes but our heritage is the same so we implore all that follow the Class of 1996 to make a positive difference.

WSSU Alumni

WSSU at

When Super Bowl XXX kicked off in Tempe, Arizona on January 28, Winston-Salem State University could proudly boast that two former Ram standouts were among the players vying to help his team bring home professional football's biggest prize. Yancey Thigpen of the Pittsburgh Steelers and Oronde Gadsden of the Dallas Cowboys, wide receivers on their respective teams, both were stellar players during their playing years at WSSU.

Yancey Thigpen was drafted 90th overall by the San Diego Chargers in the 1991 draft. He was cut by the Chargers and signed with the Pittsburgh Steelers in 1992. Thigpen played the last 12 games of the season and got his first NFL reception against Detroit Lions. In 1993, Thigpen played in 12 games, averaging 17 yards per catch and scoring three touchdowns. His first NFL touchdown came against the Cincinnati Bengals.

In 1994, Thigpen started his first game with the Steelers and his play during the season earned him several game balls for his work on special teams.

This year, Thigpen became a major part of the Steelers offense as a "go-to" receiver for quarterback Neil O'Donnell. After starting only seven NFL games before the 1995 season, Thigpen finished the season with team-record 87 catches, 1,307 yards and five touchdowns. Highlighting his career, Thigpen was named to this year's AFC's Pro Bowl team.

A native of Rocky Mount, NC, Thigpen majored in sports management while at Winston-Salem State University. During his senior year with the Rams, he had 44 catches and 14 touchdowns to earn first team all-CIAA honors.

Oronde Gadsden is a rookie receiver with the Dallas Cowboys. He signed as a free agent with the Cowboys after displaying his skills at various pre-draft camps. Gadsden spent much of his first professional year as a highly-touted receiver assigned to Dallas' practice squad. However, he was promoted to the active roster late in the regular season.

In a feature profile in the Dallas Cowboys Official Weekly magazine, Gadsden indicated that football was not his original career choice.

"...A doctor. All through my younger years I really wanted to be a doctor but when I got into sports and found I could play, it really took the time away from my studies that I needed to put in order to have that kind of career. I used to get magazines and really follow up on being a doctor. Being an anesthesiologist was just one of my goals."

Gadsden, a '95 sports management graduate, credits WSSU with helping him mature and to grow on the football field as well as in life.

"My years at WSSU were some of the greatest times of my life," says the Charleston, S.C. native. "Whether or not I continue in football, I will have my degree from Winston-Salem State University."

Gadsden broke several records and earned All-American honorable mention while with the Rams. He had 47 career touchdowns and is the most prolific scorer in CIAA history.

The Community

WHY SHOULD OUR COMMUNITY BE LEFT UP IN THE AIR?

" PARTNERS FOR CHANGE "

SEEDCO is a national organization whose distinctive approach to urban revitalization involves creating partnerships between community based groups and major urban institutions such as hospitals, universities and colleges. Established in 1986 under a grant from the Ford Foundation, SEEDCO has assisted partnerships in 30 cities and towns in all regions of the U.S.

In 1993, Winston-Salem was added to the list as Winston-Salem State University and East Winston Community Development Corporation, located at 1225 East 5th Street, partnered with SEEDCO to address crucial issues of housing, economic, and human development in the East Winston Community. In addition to producing brick-and-mortar projects, this partnership enhances the quality of neighborhood life by bringing new resources into the development process, reducing conflict between neighborhood residents and institutions, and creating forums for the articulation and resolution of neighborhood concerns.

Colophon

Volume 61 of the Winston-Salem State University Ram was published by Delmar Printing and Publishing in Charlotte, North Carolina using offset lithography printing processes. Our publishing representative was Liza Wearn. The trim size of the 1996 Ram is 9" X 12". The book was printed with 100% black ink on 240 pages.

The Ram was Smyth-sewn and rounded and backed on 160 point binders board. The cover is black material with embossing and with gold silk-screening ink applied to the front lids and spine. The endsheets were printed with different designs front and back in full color.

All black and white and color photographs were laser-scanned individually. All color portraits were shot by Beaufort Bailey on 70 mm Kodak Vericolor III film and printed on Fuji color papers. All other pictures were shot with 35 mm Fuji film and printed on Kodak papers.

Yearbook pages were composed on desktop publishing equipment including personal computers and PageMaker software. The Ram has a press run of 1,500 copies and was prepared by a volunteer staff selected from a list of applicants. Opinions expressed are those of the individual authors and are not necessarily those of the students, administration, faculty or staff.

Winston-Salem State University's colors are red and white. The mascot is the ram.
